

Announcements Continued

We welcome Michael Wilson to the pulpit this morning. He is the Director of Education for the Arc of Ministry for the Board of Pensions PC(USA). In this role, he supports PC(USA) pastors in gaining capacity for wholeness and leadership in our rapidly changing world. Previously, he served as the Stated Clerk for Donegal Presbytery and the Stated Clerk for The Synod of the Trinity. In addition, he has served as a pastor and associate pastor. He was the pastor of Chestnut Level Presbyterian Church for 15 years. Michael is adjunct professor for leadership at Princeton Theological Seminary. Michael was raised at Centre Presbyterian Church, New Park, PA. He spent much of his youth hiking and canoeing on Muddy Creek in southern York County. Michael and his wife, Tricia, have three kids (Julia, Clint, and Emma). Julia is a graduate student at Fuller Seminary. Clint (married to Kylea) lives in Denver, CO. Emma is in her third year at Hamilton College. He looks forward to reading and walking the family's chocolate lab, Brom. He is delighted to be with us this morning!

Our Blanket Offering has been extended through today. You will find special envelopes in the pews for this offering or feel free to use a plain white envelope and mark it BLANKET, and we will see that it gets to the appropriate place. This offering is sponsored by Church World Service and helps to provide warmth, comfort, and hope to neighbors far and near. It is a tangible reminder to migrant families that they are not alone as they seek safety. It wraps refugees in warmth as they arrive here in the United States to try to build a new future. And it provides comfort to neighbors who have lost homes or are struggling in the face of extreme challenges. Please give as you feel led by the Spirit.
