Pastoral Response

Prayer of Confession (Unison)—Gracious God, Jesus gave his life, gave all of himself, for us, for the world. Yet, in so many ways we do not know him. We make him what we want him to be, a lord of our fears and desires. We do not learn from his love, his service to others; instead we judge; we divide. We do not follow him upon his way; we betray him by following the way of the world. We fall asleep in all our broken ways, our little criticisms, our cruelties, the love we withhold. And then we deny him. Forgive us. Lead us again to life, to light. Amen.

*Hymn: #97 "Go to Dark Gethsemane" (1st three verses only)

Son

Fourth Scripture Reading: Mark 14:53-72 (p. 49)

Pastoral Response

*Prayer of Confession (Unison)—Merciful God, in Jesus we are restored to you. For though he was the Son of the Most High, he counted us as his sisters and brothers. He has come; he will come again to heal the world, for he rules in grace. Yet we forsake him; we forget him; we make so many other things our priorities. Where he heals, we break; where he is gentle and kind, we are loud and hurtful. We crucify him, again and again. We leave him behind in a sealed tomb. Oh, Lord, take us from the darkness of the cross. Raise us up once more so that we might be new creations in Christ. Amen.
