

The Last Supper—A Recreation

Maundy Thursday

March 28, 2013

Some 2,000 years ago, Jesus gathered with his friends for a last meal. This evening, we seek to capture a little of what that time of fellowship might have been. The text of the recreation is almost entirely drawn from the four Gospels, with the various accounts interwoven to capture what this evening may have been like. Now, chase away your distractions for a moment, and enter that upper room with us.
