Notes From the Manse

*“Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.”
1 Thessalonians 5:16-18*

A few months back, I wrote about how important Paul seems to think gratitude is, how often he urges people in his letters to be thankful. And I asked you to let me know things for which you were grateful. I used what you gave me in the Thanksgiving Eve service at the old church. Now you might think that should cover it, that really I shouldn't overdue this thanks thing. But I don't know. Look at what Paul said above—it's the will of God in Christ to give thanks in all circumstances. And it can be hard not to. The last two days I have watched Eric Hughes come over to the church with his snow blower to clear the walks and the doors in the front and back of the church. Today, I saw Ed Margerum using his snow blower to clear the sidewalk not only in front of the manse, but also in front of our neighbor's house. And I as I write this, George Shue and Dave Berkheimer are clearing the sidewalk in front of the church. So, forgive me if I start in thanking people again, but I'm in kind of a grateful mood.

I want to thank all the officers of the church for the committee work they did this year, for all the events, special and otherwise, they helped pull together, for sadly so many funeral lunches, for keeping the church's plant going strong. I especially want to thank those officers whose terms are up, Sharon Williams (though now she is becoming a deacon), Geri Lutz, Janet Cosby, Lori Smith, Forrest Boas (and Charlene Boas for filling his term), George and Karen Shue, and Sean Carney. I'm grateful too for our new secretary, Sandy Schoettle, and our new outdoor sexton, George Hall—they both have given themselves fully to their jobs and done wonderfully well. And thanks too to all who covered the work of the secretary and outdoor sexton while we searched for new ones.

And there have been special events this past year, though it may seem like they happened in another decade. We had a presbytery meeting here at Leacock and we celebrated our 275th anniversary. Neither of those events would have been possible without the hard work of many people. Remember the people the day before the presbytery meeting out in the parking lot chipping away ice and moving snow so we would have enough parking spaces? And then there were those who showed up early to direct the parking, to serve a breakfast, to keep things moving smoothly. Do you remember the 275th service with special music, pastors from several generations offering reflections, and an unbelievable luncheon afterwards?

Then there are what may seem like little things, but really aren't. I thank the people who greet people at the welcome center each Sunday and those who volunteer to bring refreshments for after the services. There's Paula Hughes who wrote and directed a delightful Christmas play for our youth. Last, but by no means least, are those things that have touched Emily and me personally. I thank you, the congregation, for your generous gift at Christmas time and all the individuals who gave us cookies and other sweets, fruit, kind notes and cards. And just the other day, Harold Yuninger showed up with a new trashcan to replace our old dilapidated one.

So, yes, I am grateful, in so many ways for so many things at this church. All the things you do over the course of a year add up. Those acts of service and kindness reveal the presence of the Spirit in this place. It makes me want to rejoice; it makes we want to say thank you.

Wednesday, February 10, with a traditional service of meditation and the administering of ashes held in the sanctuary at 5:30pm. On the following five Tuesdays we will hold our Lenten Studies. A light meal of soup and bread will begin at 5:30pm in Fellowship Hall, followed by a time of study and discussion led by Rev. Robert W. Birch. In his time, Jesus asked his followers many questions; he answered some as well. We will explore some of the central questions Jesus asked and what they mean for our faith. And we will look at those questions he answered. Please feel free to join the group at whatever time, and for whichever weeks you are able. The dates are February 16, February 23, March 1, March 8 and March 15.

A Bible Time Feast!

We celebrate important events and holidays by gathering for meals – for feasts! The disciples and other people who lived in Bible times did the same. “Breaking bread” together was, and is, an important part of our lives. The early Christians often met for an Agape meal – a time of friendship and fellowship.

We might enjoy ham or turkey or lasagna and pumpkin pie or cheesecake. What would a menu from an early Christian Agape meal look like?

Look up each Scripture reference to complete the menu below.

Mission Committee News

January 28th began another year of serving free community meals for anyone in the community who wishes to participate in a free hot nourishing meal with lots of fellowship. As in past years, the meals will take place on the last Thursday of the month, with the exception of November and December, from 5:30 to 6:30pm in our Smith Fellowship Hall. Sign up sheets will be in place in the Narthex two Sundays prior to the meal with sign up times when you can help or food items that may be donated. Everyone who has helped seems to agree that it is an excellent way to show Christ's love to others. If you have never helped, come and join us and have one of the most fulfilling and joyful experiences of church life.

Sunday, February 7th is our annual “Souper Bowl” Sunday. It is the one Sunday every year that you can feel free to dump all your change from your wallets, pockets, pocketbooks, car ashtrays, piggy banks, jars at home, and dump all that change at church. You are also invited to bring canned items as well. We will donate them to the Paradise food bank for those in the community who need it. The money collected will be going

On Sunday, February 14th, (also known as Valentine's Day!), our One Great Hour of Sharing offering begins. This offering is taken all six weeks of Lent to help those who are less fortunate than we are. There will be envelopes in the pews or feel free to use a plain white envelope and simply mark it "One Great Hour of Sharing" and put it in the offering plate. This offering will run until Sunday, March 27th (Easter Sunday).

Annual Meeting and One Worship Service

Our Annual Meeting is scheduled for Sunday, February 21, following a combined worship service at 9:30am. After receiving the reports from our officers and committees, we will enjoy a congregational meal in Fellowship Hall.

Worship Committee

If you are interested in joining us, please speak to Karen Homsher or Skip Brackbill, If you cannot serve on the committee but have ideas for what you would like to see included in Leacock worship, please contact us or put them in the "Thoughts and Ideas" box in the Narthex. ## Trustee Notes

February is the month for the Trustee's Special Fund Offering. The Trustees will be collecting money to replace the manse furnace and also for some ongoing repairs.

Trustees have already secured $2,000 for the furnace and the majority of February's collection will go towards that project. The quote for replacing the furnace is over $5,000. The repairman said he does not want to do any more than he has to on the furnace at this time due to the condition of the unit.

As always, if you see something that the Trustees need to look at, tell one of them. Thanks to everyone for your help

Being Mortal by Atul Gawande

The Leacock book and movie group is reading Being Mortal: Medicine and What Matters in the End. I will reiterate that this is a book that is an important read for every adult as author Atul Gawande explores how to bring meaning and purpose to the last phase of life.

We will order pizza and discuss the book on Friday February 12 at 5:00pm. Please join us for the discussion (and, no, you do not have to have read the book).

Leacock Youth Group

The Leacock youth group had a fun December, kicking off with Family Advent Night and ending the fall “term” with a bonfire and gift exchange, complete with s’mores and a ghost story told by Reverend Birch. We invited youth group alumni to join us, and it was good to see friends we’ve missed. Thank you, thank you to Skip and Marie Brackbill for sharing their “back yard” and helping us with the fire and cooking hot dogs.

We’re busy planning events for the new year, while also continuing our discussions involving the choices we make. And we’ve moved beyond playing sardines every meeting, although it’s still a favorite among some members. We’re exploring possibilities for a retreat this summer, since the group missed that last summer.

As always, if you ever have any questions about youth group meetings, you can call or text Emily on her cell phone: 717-725-6572 or email: emilymb95@gmail.com. Those of you on Facebook can also email via Facebook messenger.

Thank you Leacock Presbyterian Church! Exceptionally strong offering amounts in December from you, the members and friends of Leacock, have allowed us to completely cover our 2015 expenses with a small surplus of $255.00. Whew! While not much, it is not a deficit, and for the last two years we have operated with no deficit. Although this is a good situation (when compared to other churches in our nation who are struggling to continue), I would be remiss if I didn't point out we have not met our anticipated budget amount for offering of $225,312. While we gave $34,281 (from offerings) to our Mission Committee to use for benevolence purposes, we had hoped to provide a full $39,000 to help others in our community, nation and worldwide. Another figure I want to make you aware of, is the total offering in 2015 as compared to 2014. You will see from the reports above that we received $207,574 in 2014 and $198,043 in 2015. I know it is only January, but I want to challenge us to make 2016 different, and not make declining offerings a trend. Every little bit helps. Not just the amount of offering given on Sundays, but all the help and material donations given to our church that make a difference and helps control our expenses. Thank you all again!

The Stewardship Committee.

Thank You Notes Received

Dear Church Family,

I would like to thank everyone for their cards and prayers during my recovery.

A real highlight was a visit from Carol and Rick (Shearer), Lois (Eshleman), Marie (Brackbill), and Bob and Margy (Hershey). I enjoyed their singing Christmas carols and cookies, yum!

Thanks to Bob (Birch) for a visit while I was in the hospital.

What a wonderful and caring family.

Sue Funk

Dear Church Family,

Earl and I would like to thank you all for remembering us at Christmas time. We really enjoyed the visit and the beautiful poinsettia you gave us in honor of Earl's birthday.

It was so nice to visit with June Stannard, Jane Witmer and Ruth Bair on that day. Since we aren't able to attend church much anymore, we really enjoyed visiting and catching up with them all again. Also, thanks so much for the beautiful Christmas caroling and the cookies you all shared with us - Marie Brackbill, Carol and Rick Shearer, Lois Eshleman, and Bob and Margy Hershey (hopefully we remembered them all. If we forgot one please forgive us.)

Thanks also for remembering us during the year with cards. We are so blessed to be part of such a caring church family.

May God Bless you all in the New Year.

Love and Prayers

Earl and Jacqueline Miller

Dear Leacock Church Friends,

As many of you know, I had a knee replacement on December 22. Thank you for the thoughtful cards, phone calls, texts, visits, taxi driving, delicious meals and most of all your prayers for a speedy recovery. I am healing and getting around very well, thanks to you all. I am so lucky to have such special, wonderful, caring friends. Thanks again!

Love,

Loretta McClarigan

Leacock Fellowship

Every Sunday, after the 10:30 service, a group of Leacock folks gathers for fellowship and lunch at the Olde Mill Restaurant at the Best Western in Intercourse. This isn't some special club. You don't need to pay a fee to get in.

All you need to do is to come along and join us and be willing to laugh and to get to know people with whom you worship on Sundays whom you might not know. Everyone is invited (even if you attend 8:00 service, you're welcome to come have lunch with us).

We do need to know how many to expect, so the restaurant staff can pull tables together for us, so after church, if you'd like to come along, please let either Margy Hershey or Mary Alice High know.

Hope to see you there!

What's New With the Adult Sunday School Class

The Christian Education Committee would like to thank Milt Hostetter for a very enlightening and engrossing three month's study covering the first 500 years of the Christian church.

Starting January 31st, David Homsher will be leading the discussion focusing on the book, To Walk in Integrity, written by Steve Doughty.

To quote one reviewer:
"Doughty wisely recognizes there are no easy answers to this challenge and gently walks with his reader, raising insightful questions to create openings for maturing in integrity. The book inspires compassion and justice for a broken world."

Gratitude Corner

(Those Who Go Above and Beyond to Care for their Minister and His Wife)

It's difficult to single anyone out for the gratitude corner right after the Christmas season. Every year, Bob and I are touched and moved by all those of you who send us cards, leave cookies and other goodies on our door step or in the office, who contribute to the end-of-year gift, and who show their love for us in other ways. I am going to single out someone (3 someones, actually), though, who have added to the joy of the Christmas season for us. As you know, we have a few young thespians in our midst at Leacock, one of whom performs in local theaters around Lancaster County. Last year, his parents arranged for us to see him in The American Musical Theater's Christmas Spectacular. This year, they arranged for us to see him in "A Christmas Story" at the Dutch Apple Dinner Theater. Both events were great fun, and Chad Hughes made us proud. (It was fun at Dutch Apple when we were able to announce to our dinner table companions before the show that we were here, basically, to see the star of the show).

So, thank you, thank you to Paula, Eric and Chad Hughes for being such generous souls and sharing this part of your life with us. We really appreciate it!
