ANNOUNCEMENTS

Next Sunday, May 18th, you will be privileged to have the Rev. Adam Nagle, Executive Director of The Factory Ministries as pulpit supply. While on study leave in Atlanta for the annual Festival of Homiletics, I will have the opportunity to visit the Martin Luther King Memorial, the Jimmy Carter Center, and other historical sites. These opportunities of continuing education help to keep me vital. With gratitude, your pastor, Jim.

Sunday, May 25th is a VISITATION SUNDAY for you and our leaders to visit neighboring congregations. There will be NO IN PERSON worship at Leacock. The purpose is to experience different styles of worship and learn of their ministries. A sign up sheet is available today and next week along with an assessment survey to use. Your feedback will help us gain new perspectives on our own ministries. While some of you will be away with Memorial Day plans, it is hoped there will be a critical mass to cover a variety of our nearby churches.
